

Vietnam COVID-19 Huddle

Since April, Vietnam has been experiencing a surge in COVID-19 cases, despite having successfully contained the pandemic last year. Parts of Vietnam, such as Ho Chi Minh City, have entered a period of strict lockdown since 23 August 2021, which prohibit people from leaving their homes.

What are companies and individuals doing to address the situation, and what challenges are they having? How can individuals, organisations, and companies support local communities most in need?
